INTRODUCTION

Tuscany, land of cypresses and cradle of the Italian renaissance, is by far Italy's most famous holiday region, brimming with cultural and natural attractions. There are the marvellous art cities of Florence and Siena, typical villages such as Montalcino and Montepulciano and small medieval hamlets such as Buonconvento and Monticchiello. There is the unique Tuscan landscape with its vineyards, cypress-lined roads and olive groves, known and loved by tourists all over the world. There is the Italian Renaissance art - painting and sculpture alike. And there are the good genuine Tuscan food and wines. Even with all its tourist bustle, Tuscany still offers quiet back roads and peaceful villages, to be savoured slowly and easily, by exploring them on a bicycle for example.

This tour will take you over clouds of sunflower fields under the Tuscan sun along cypress-lined country roads and through olive groves and vineyards, from the little town of Buonconvento along broad valleys and rolling hills to famous locations such as Montalcino, Montepulciano and Pienza. You will cycle beneath an extinct volcano to ancient monasteries and have the opportunity to visit delightful medieval hamlets located on low hilltops. Your trip leads you through the delightful Val d'Orcia area, famous for its wines and quiet, peaceful countryside. All the while riding on great well paved and quiet roads, ideal for cycling.

During your tour you will visit the region's main cultural attractions such as the historical towns of Buonconvento, Montalcino, Montepulciano and Pienza, dominated by their many churches and ancient 'palazzi'. Cycling through the green hills you will be greeted by friendly locals and savour the flavour of traditional local culinary specialties. During your tour you will stay in a charming Tuscan farmhouse near Buonconvento, surrounded by rolling countryside full of quiet winding roads and 'strade bianche', and in a nice 3-star hotel located in the city of Pienza.

During the first days of your stay you will explore the little town of Buonconvento and its countryside, cycling towards Murlo, La Befa and Montalcino. On the next couple of days you will discover the marvellous medieval hamlets of the Val d'Orcia, taking you past the monasteries of Monte Oliveto Maggiore and Sant'Anna in Camprena, and to the hamlet of Monticchiello and the wine-producing town of Montepulciano. All the while you will cycle through a patchwork of wheat fields, olive groves, vineyards and rolling green hills, dotted with small churches and quintessential Tuscan farmhouses.

Please note: this is a moderate tour suitable even for those with just a basic level of fitness. Rides, although passing through rolling hill country, are short and generally only include a few climbs, leaving plenty of time for sightseeing. Average cycling times: approx. 3-4 hours each day.

DAY-TO-DAY PROGRAMME

Day 0 – Florence (or Pisa)

Arrival in Florence (or Pisa) in case you arrive a day earlier.

Florence Airport has regular international flights, while Pisa is served by several low cost companies. From Florence, Buonconvento is easily reached by train. Regular regional trains have a travel time of about two hours and cost around € 8,00. You will have to change trains at Siena. There are also regular regional trains from Pisa, though you may have to change trains once or twice depending on the train; cost is between € 8,00 and € 11,00. Several hotels can be booked in Florence or Pisa, according to your wishes (either 'downtown' centrally located, or near the train station, ranging from 3 to 5-star).

N.B. If you arrive one day earlier you have the chance to pay a visit to Florence already, or alternatively to Pisa, both offering several historical and cultural points of interest.

Day 1 – Arrival in Buonconvento

After your arrival in the charming medieval town of Buonconvento, rich in history and architecture with 700-year-old walls, a private transfer will take you to your agriturismo (farmhouse). This will be your base for the next 3 nights. If you have chosen to rent a bike, it will be waiting for you at the accommodation. In case you arrive early you can have a short ride already or go for a stroll and immerse yourself in the tranquillity of the surrounding countryside. In the evening you will enjoy a hearty Tuscan dinner in the agriturismo.

Accommodation: Agriturismo in Buonconvento

Day 2 – Buonconvento to Murlo and La Befana round trip

On your first trip you will cycle through the rolling, lush countryside to Etruscan Murlo. Here you can pause for a cup of coffee and explore the back alleys of the little town, admiring its many churches. You may well visit the archaeological area near the town. You then continue through the dense woods as you ride by the Crevole River passing by Miniera di Murlo on your way to La Befana. You will cycle partly on unpaved roads through a landscape of steep rock cliffs and enchanting oak forests dotted with sweet smelling colourful flowers. On a short section of the trail you may have to push your bicycle, but the exhilarating views over the verdant valley floor are more than worth the effort. From the hamlet of La Befana you will then ride through rich cultivated fields back again to your agriturismo, where after freshening up you can enjoy an 'aperitivo' before dinner.

Accommodation: Agriturismo in Buonconvento

Day 4 – Buonconvento to Pienza

This morning you say goodbye to the agriturismo at Buonconvento and head for the lovely town of Pienza. You first climb uphill to the renowned 14th-century monastery of Monte Oliveto Maggiore, a majestic complex of buildings located in a wonderful position above the valley floor. Here you can admire the delightful frescos and its botanical garden. From the monastery you follow a winding route past isolated villages and along country roads lined with hundreds of cypress trees, until you arrive at another monastery, that of Sant'Anna in Caprena. Also this 14th-century complex preserves some wonderful frescos and its peaceful gardens invite you for a quiet break. After lunch you will continue on winding country lanes to the lovely little town of Pienza, one of the Val d'Orcia's best known centres. After settling down in your hotel, you may go out and explore the city, wandering through its back alleys, and admiring its many churches and 'palazzi'. In the evening you are free to organise your own dinner in one of the town's many restaurants.

Accommodation: Hotel in Pienza

Distance : 38 km – Cycling time : 3,5 hours

Day 5 – Pienza to Bagno Vignoni round trip

Today is a relaxing day during which you will cycle over the valley's undulating country roads to the ancient thermal resort of Bagno Vignoni. The village is famous for its 'Piazza delle Sorgenti' (Square of Springs), incorporating a large 15th-century pool filled up with water from a thermal spring. The spring water from Bagno Vignoni was already known for its therapeutic properties in Roman times. Legend says that several water nymphs live here. After visiting the village you will turn back to Pienza through the unspoiled countryside to enjoy a lazy afternoon next to the hotel's swimming pool.

To reach Montepulciano you will have to gather your strength as the beautiful medieval town centre is located on top of a low hill. Take your time for a thorough visit to the town, to admire the Duomo, its many churches and 'palazzi' and its two monasteries. Montepulciano is rightly famous not only for its locally produced 'vino Nobile di Montepulciano', but also as the set where large parts of the film 'The English Patient' were filmed!
