INTRODUCTION

This ten-day tour is a true and full immersion into two beautiful regions that are considered among the greatest places for cycling holidays. You will see the very best of Central Tuscany and Umbria. These two regions are in themselves historically, culturally and climatically different. Tuscany is known for its hamlets and hill towns, terracotta rooftops, swaying cypresses and golden valleys, as well as being the birthplace of the Italian language, the Renaissance, and the cradle of Italian art. It was also the land of wars between hundreds of its towns and villages.

Here you will enjoy the countryside, the rolling vineyards, the poppies in spring and the wild cyclamen in autumn. Most of all, many of the views have barely changed for hundreds of years. On this tour you head off into a picturesque Tuscan landscape of gentle hills, tipped by a lonely pine or oak tree while cypresses line the way leading to the distant farmhouses.

The holy Umbria was a land of peace, historically bound to the State of the Church. It is the land of St. Francis and it is the "Green Heart" of Italy - with its green fields, plains, forests and meadows of the Apennine Mountains. It is known not only for its precious liquid, olive oil, but also for its white and pink Umbrian limestone that was used to build many of its medieval villages.

Umbria is not as famous as the Tuscan landscape, but perhaps more genuine and at least as beautiful! You will cycle from village to village, through forests and vineyards, then through the rolling hills between the spectacular hilltop towns of Spoleto, Spello and Assisi in a full immersion in the mythical Umbrian landscape.

Please note: this is a moderate tour which is suitable for all those who have some experience of bicycle touring and are in a good general physical condition. On some of the inland stretches you may encounter some steeper climbs. Average cycling times: approx 5-6 hours each day.

Day 1 – Arrival at Montepulciano

On arrival at your charming hotel in Montepulciano you will be met by our staff. Today you cycle from Montepulciano through the delightful Tuscan countryside to the village of Pienza, a small, perfectly laid-out Renaissance town, completely re-built under the orders of Pope Pius II. This little town is full of highlights, among which is the Basilica of San Francesco d'Assisi (St. Francis) of course, with its wonderful frescos by Giotto, a World Heritage Site.
